Pro-Sex Feminism

Feminism should encourage women to resist not only coercion and victimisation, but also sexual ignorance, deprivation and fear of difference... Feminism must also insist that women are sexual subjects, sexual actors, sexual agents; that our [her]stories are complex and instructive; that our experience is not a blank, nor a mere repetition of what has been said about us, and that the pleasure we have experienced is as much a guide to future action as the brutality... It is not enough to move women from danger and oppression... Feminism must increase women's pleasure and joy, not just decrease our misery." -

Love story ... Tonda the orangutan with tabby cat TK yesterday. Picture: THE NEWS HERALD/TERRY BARNER

TK's got a monkey on his back called love

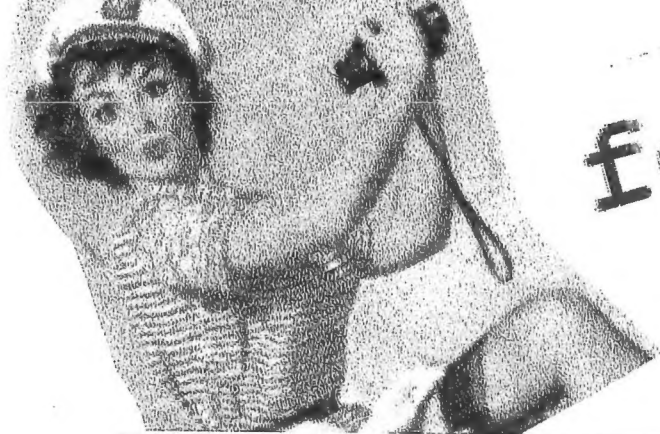

THEY may not look like the most glamorous couple, but a once lonely female orangutan and a tabby cat have become inseparable companions.

Tonda the orangutan and the tabby named TK have lived together at Zooworld in Florida for the past two months.

Tonda was lonely after the death of her mate, who died two years ago.

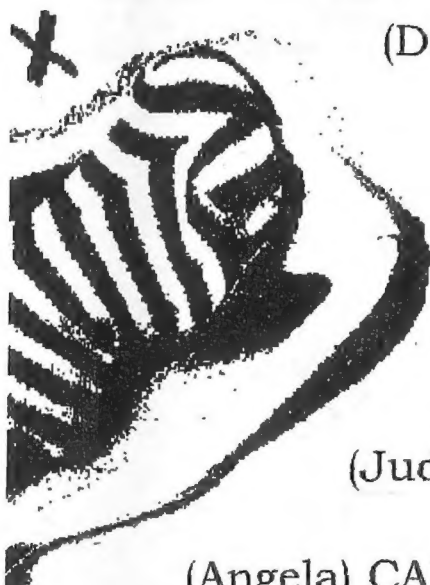

The companionship resembles that of the famous lowland gorilla, Koko, and her kitten. Through the use of sign language, Koko asked her minders for a kitten, which later died in an accident.

Mami Wata

According to the ancient cosmology, Mami Wata are ancient deities whose existence in Africa is pre-historic.

The cult emerged out of West Africa and is particularly popular in Benin, Togo, Ghana and in the USA.

In many parts of West and Central Africa, 'Mami Wata' is used as a term to describe an attractive woman.

Her appearance is debated and varies from cult to cult.

There are many icons from Western popular culture who have been inaugurated into the cult as honorary Mami Watas. One of the most famous examples is Madonna.

Madonna's hit song 'Cherish' was written as a thank you to the cult for making her an honorary Mami. The video clip is filmed on a beach and features her playing with a Merboy in the ocean.

The Mami Wata has a strong phallic nature and is often depicted with snakes. She has been known to seduce women as well as men.

The good wife's guide

- Have dinner ready. Plan ahead, even the night before, to have a delicious meal ready, on time for his return. This is a way of letting him know that you have been thinking about him and are concerned about his needs. Most men are hungry when they come home and the prospect of a good meal (especially his favourite dish) is part of the warm welcome needed.
- Prepare yourself. Take 15 minutes to rest so you'll be refreshed when he arrives. Touch up your make-up, put a ribbon in your hair and be fresh-looking. He has just been with a lot of work-weary people.
- Be a little gay and a little more interesting for him. His boring day may need a lift and one of your duties is to provide it.
- Clear away the clutter. Make one last trip through the main part of the house just before your husband arrives.

- Gather up schoolbooks, toys, paper etc and then run a dustcloth over the tables.
- Over the cooler months of the year you should prepare and light a fire for him to unwind by. Your husband will feel he has reached a haven of rest i order, and it will give you a lift too. After all, catering for his comfort will provide you with immense personal satisfaction.
- Prepare the children. Take a few minutes to wash the children's hands an faces (if they are small), comb their hair and, if necessary, change their clothes. They are little treasures and he would like to see them playing th part. Minimise all noise. At the time of his arrival, eliminate all noise of th washer, dryer or vacuum. Try to encourage the children to be quiet.
- Be happy to see him.
- Greet him with a warm smile and show sincerity in your desire to please him.
- Listen to him. You may have a dozen important things to tell him, but the moment of his arrival is not the time. Let him talk first – remember, his topics of conversation are more important than yours.
- Make the evening his. Never complain if he comes home late or goes out dinner, or other places of entertainment without you. Instead, try to understand his world of strain and pressure and his very real need to be a home and relax.
- Your goal: Try to make sure your home is a place of peace, order and tranquillity where your husband can renew himself in body and spirit.
- Don't greet him with complaints and problems.
- Don't complain if he's late home for dinner or even if he stays out all night Count this as minor compared to what he might have gone through that c
- Make him comfortable. Have him lean back in a comfortable chair or hav him lie down in the bedroom. Have a cool or warm drink ready for him.
- Arrange his pillow and offer to take off his shoes. Speak in a low, soothing and pleasant voice.
- Don't ask him questions about his actions or question his judgment or integrity. Remember, he is the master of the house and as such will always exercise his will with fairness and truthfulness. You have no right to question him.
- A good wife always knows her place.
